1. The Landlord lets to the Tenant the Designated Room, with the right to share the use of the Shared Parts with such other persons as the Landlord grants or has granted the right to use those Shared Parts, for the Term at the Rent specified above.

2. The Tenant shall pay to OpenRent on the signing of this agreement the amount of the full amount due for the Initial Payment of Rent, unless the Tenant and the Landlord have agreed in writing a later date when payment may be made. The Tenant shall also either pay a Cash Deposit to OpenRent, or take out a Deposit Replacement from Reposit. This agreement shall not become binding on the Landlord until the Tenant has paid the first payment of Rent and the Cash Deposit or Deposit Replacement (as applicable), and the Tenant shall have no right to occupy the Premises, until this payment has been made in full.

3. If the Tenant chooses to pay a Cash Deposit this will be paid to OpenRent and held under the terms of mydeposits, of which OpenRent is a registered member. If the tenant chooses to take out a Deposit Replacement, they shall purchase this from Reposit and it will be subject to Reposit's terms and conditions. Further detail is provided in the next section of this document.

4. The first payment of Rent will be paid to OpenRent and held by OpenRent up to a maximum of 14 days from the beginning of the Term, after which it will be paid to the Landlord with OpenRent's fees deducted where applicable.

5. The Tenant shall pay all future Rent when it becomes due, either to OpenRent via Rent Now rent collection, or the Landlord directly; the Tenant will be notified in writing of the correct account details for payment. Further detail is provided in subsequent sections of this document and in OpenRent's Terms of Business.

6. It is a condition of this agreement that the Tenant and any occupiers of the Premises over the age of 18, at all times maintain a right to rent in accordance with and as defined by the Immigration Act 2014 (where applicable). If the Tenant does not provide satisfactory documentation to allow the Landlord to verify the Tenant's identity and to satisfactorily perform any right to rent immigration checks required, the Landlord will not permit the Tenant to occupy the Premises.

7. This agreement is intended to create an Assured Shorthold Tenancy as defined by section 19A of the Housing Act 1988 (as amended).

The Deposit

8.1. The Tenant can choose to pay a Cash Deposit for this tenancy, or may instead as an alternative choose to purchase a Deposit Replacement from Reposit. For the avoidance of doubt, only a Cash Deposit or a Deposit Replacement may be chosen for the tenancy.

8.2. The following clauses (8.2-8.9 inclusive) apply only if the Tenant chooses to pay a Cash Deposit. These clauses set out:

- what OpenRent will do with the Cash Deposit paid by the Tenant under clause 3 above;
- what the Tenant can expect of the Landlord or OpenRent when either deals with the Cash Deposit;
- the circumstances in which the Tenant is entitled to less than the full Cash Deposit returned at the conclusion of the tenancy; and
- the circumstances in which other monies may be requested from the Tenant.

By signing, all parties declare that the details relating to the Cash Deposit that are outlined in this tenancy agreement are correct to the best of their knowledge and belief.

8.3. The Cash Deposit will be held in a Custodial Tenancy Deposit Scheme by mydeposits, which is the Government approved custodial scheme:

8.4. Once the Cash Deposit has been paid by the Tenant, OpenRent will promptly transfer the Cash Deposit to mydeposits. OpenRent will aim to do this within 1 working day of funds clearing, and always within the 30 days required under the terms of the scheme. Once funds have cleared with mydeposits, the Deposit will be re-assigned to the Landlord's registered account with mydeposits.

8.5. The Tenant is not entitled to receive any interest on the Cash Deposit. At the end of the tenancy, howsoever it comes to an end, upon vacant possession of the Premises and return of the keys, the Cash Deposit shall be returned to the Tenant less such sum as the Landlord may reasonably require:

- to pay any arrears of Rent;
- to make good any damage to the Designated Room and Shared Parts and fixtures and fittings (except for fair wear and tear) caused by the Tenant or arising from any breach of the terms of this agreement by the Tenant or the Tenant's failure to take reasonable care;
- to make good any damage caused or cleaning required due to pets, animals, reptiles, birds, or fish occupying the Designated Room and Shared Parts (whether or not the Landlord consented to its presence);
- to pay any sum repayable by the Landlord to the local authority where housing benefit has been paid direct to the Landlord by the local authority;
- to compensate the Landlord for any other breach by the Tenant of the terms of this agreement;
- to pay any unpaid account or charge for water, electricity, gas, other fuels or utilities used by the Tenant in the Premises;

- to pay any unpaid council tax, telephone charges or other monies owed by the Tenant to the Landlord;
- to compensate the Landlord for any reasonable cost incurred to clean the Designated Room and Shared Parts to the same standard as at the beginning of the tenancy;
- to compensate the Landlord for the charges incurred by the Landlord's bank if any cheques or standing orders from the Tenant are not honoured by the Tenant's bank.

8.6. No deductions shall be made from the Cash Deposit unless, or until, the reason for the nature of the deductions along with their amounts have been notified to the Tenant. Any dispute arising from the proposed deductions will be subject to mydeposits guidelines including use of the free and independent Alternative Dispute Resolution service where its use has been agreed by the Tenant and Landlord.

8.7. The Tenant shall not be entitled to withhold the payment of any instalment of Rent or any other monies payable under this agreement on the ground that the Landlord, or OpenRent, holds the Cash Deposit or any part of it.

8.8. If the Cash Deposit is insufficient the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord such additional sums as required to cover all costs, charges and expenses properly due within a period of 14 days from the end of the tenancy.

8.9. If either party is not contactable or otherwise not responsive at the end of the tenancy, the other party should notify the Deposit scheme administrator so that the Cash Deposit may be treated in accordance with the terms of the scheme.

8.10. This clause 8.10 applies only if the Tenant chooses to purchase a Deposit Replacement. In this situation:

- Any stipulations relating specifically to a Cash Deposit or Prescribed Information within this agreement should be disregarded. All other provisions of this agreement shall remain in full force and effect.
- No security deposit shall be taken from the Tenant and in its place, the Tenant will purchase a Deposit Replacement from Reposit.
- The Tenant and Landlord in this tenancy agreement will both be bound by Reposit's terms and conditions which they will be able to view on the Reposit web platform.
- The Tenant acknowledges that the Deposit Replacement fee payable to Reposit is non-refundable and the Tenant remains fully liable for all dilapidations and rent arrears at the end of tenancy.
- The Landlord may at the end of the tenancy submit a charge to the Tenant via the Reposit web platform (<https://reposit.co.uk/>) for the following reasons:
 - Any damage or compensation for damage to the Premises, its fixtures and fittings or for missing items except for fair wear and tear.
 - Any Rent or other money due or payable to the Landlord by the Tenant under the tenancy agreement of which the Tenant has been made aware and which remain unpaid after the end of the tenancy.
 - The reasonable costs incurred for rectifying or remedying any breach by the Tenant of the Tenant's obligations in the tenancy agreement including but not limited to those relating to the removal of items from the Premises, cleaning of the Premises its fixtures and fittings or repairs and maintenance arising from the Tenant's use of the Premises.

Obligations of the Tenant

The following clauses set out what is expected of the Tenant during the tenancy in addition to the main terms found in this agreement. If any of these terms are breached, the Landlord may be entitled to deduct monies from the Cash Deposit, or register the outstanding amounts due with Reposit (as applicable), claim damages from the Tenant, and/or seek the court's permission to have the Tenant evicted from the Premises because of the breach.

The Tenant agrees:

- 9.1. That any obligation upon the Tenant under this agreement to do or not to do anything shall also require the Tenant not to permit or cause any licensee or visitor to breach that obligation.
- 9.2. To pay the Rent as specified earlier in this agreement whether or not it has been formally demanded. The first payment of Rent shall be paid directly to OpenRent. After this the Tenant will be notified in writing of the correct payment details to use and they shall pay all further Rent as directed either to OpenRent via Rent Now rent collection, or the Landlord directly.

This includes standing charges and other similar charges and VAT, as well as charges for actual consumption.
- 9.5. Unless otherwise agreed in writing with the Landlord, to pay the Council Tax in respect of the Premises for the duration of the Tenancy regardless of legal liability for the Council Tax. If the Council Tax billing authority bills the Landlord for Council Tax for the Premises and other property together, the Tenant agrees to pay a proportionate share of the Council Tax. If the Tenant qualifies for a discount or an exemption from Council Tax it is the responsibility of the Tenant to apply for this.
- 9.6. That if the Tenant breaches this agreement or fails to fulfil their obligations contained in this agreement, the Tenant shall pay any reasonable costs properly incurred by the Landlord in remedying such breaches or in connection with the enforcement of those obligations.
- 9.7. To keep the Designated Room and Shared Parts and the Landlord's contents in as good and clean state of repair and condition and decoration as they were in at the commencement of the Term and make good all damage and breakages which may occur during the Term (fair wear and tear excepted).

- 9.15. To keep clean the windows inside and outside of the Premises, where safe access is possible. Failure by the Tenant to take adequate precautions to prevent glass panes being cracked or broken will result in the Tenant having to pay for any ensuing damage.
- 9.16. If there are common parts to the building, not to obstruct, keep or leave anything in them.
- 9.17. To keep the exterior free from rubbish.
- 9.18. To place all refuse in plastic bags in the designated dustbin(s) which should be kept in the area provided. If necessary on refuse collection day to move the dustbin(s) to the collection point as required by the local Council.
- 9.19. Not to hang clothes or other articles on any balcony or out of any window.
- 9.20. To replace any light bulbs, fluorescent tubes, fuses or batteries promptly and when necessary.
- 9.21. To notify the Landlord immediately regarding, and confirm in writing as soon as practical thereafter, any defect in the Premises which comes to the Tenant's attention and which is the responsibility of the Landlord to repair. Failure to do so will result in the tenant having to pay the Landlord all liabilities which may be incurred by the Landlord as a result of any such defect not having been so notified.
- 9.22. To work with the Landlord to minimise the risk caused by Legionella bacteria and in particular to keep showerheads and taps clean, not to interfere with or adjust the boiler temperature, and to run the taps in order to flush through the plumbing system after any prolonged period of inactivity.
- 9.23. To take reasonable precautions to prevent any damage to the Premises resulting from 'freezing-up'. This includes ensuring the Premises are adequately heated during periods of cold weather to ensure the water system does not freeze. Failure by the Tenant to take such precautions will result in the Tenant having to pay for any ensuing damage.
- 9.24. To take all reasonable precautions to prevent condensation and damp by keeping the Premises adequately ventilated and heated.
- 9.25. To use the Premises solely for the purposes of a private residence for the Tenant and any other persons specially permitted by Landlord to occupy the Premises.

- 9.27. Not to use the Premises for any immoral, illegal or improper purposes.
- 9.28. To make only reasonable use of the utilities and communications services consistent with ordinary residential use.
- 9.29. Not to do or permit to be done in the Premises or elsewhere anything which may be or become a nuisance, annoyance or inconvenience to the Landlord, the owner or occupiers of any adjoining property, the neighbours, other adjoining residents or people in the immediate area.
- 9.30. Not to keep any cat, dog (excluding guide dogs where reasonably necessary), bird or other pet or animal at the Premises without the Landlord's written consent, such consent, if granted, to be revocable at will by the Landlord upon giving reasonable written notice. - to enter the Premises to inspect the same and the Landlord's furniture and effects therein (if any) and to carry out any works of maintenance or repair to the Premises or elsewhere which the Landlord may consider necessary. If the Tenant fails to allow access and such failure causes the Landlord to incur costs, the Tenant shall be liable for all reasonable losses resulting as a consequence.
- to enter and view the Premises with any prospective future Tenants or purchasers during the last 60 days of the tenancy.

9.43. At the end of the Term, to vacate the Premises and give vacant possession. The Premises and its content must at the end of the Term be in the same good and clean state of repair and decoration as the Premises was in at the commencement of the Term (fair wear and tear excepted). The tenant must pay for the repair or replacement of any items of the fixtures, fittings and appliances which have been damaged, destroyed or lost.

9.44. At the end of the Term, to remove all of their furniture and other goods from the Premises. Obligations of the Landlord

The following clauses set out what can be expected from the Landlord during the tenancy. If any of these terms are broken, the Tenant may be entitled to claim damages from the Landlord, or ask a court to make the Landlord fulfil their obligations.

The Landlord agrees:

Quiet Enjoyment

11.1. To allow the Tenant to quietly hold and enjoy the Designated Room and Shared Parts during the tenancy without any unlawful interruption by the Landlord or any person rightfully claiming on behalf of the Landlord.

Consents

11.2. To confirm that all necessary consents have been obtained to enable the Landlord to enter this agreement (whether from superior landlords, lenders, mortgagees, insurers, or others).

Statutory Repairing Obligations

11.3. To comply with the obligations to repair the Premises as set out in sections 11 to 16 of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 (as amended by the Housing Act 1988). These sections impose on the Landlord obligations to repair and keep in good order:

- the structure of the Premises and exterior (including drains, gutters and pipes);
- certain installations for the supply of water, electricity and gas;
- sanitary appliances including basins, sinks, baths and sanitary conveniences;
- space heating and water heating;

but not other fixtures, fittings, and appliances for making use of the supply of water and electricity. This obligation arises only after notice has been given to the Landlord by the Tenant regarding the defect or issue in question.

11.4. To repay to the Tenant any reasonable costs incurred by the Tenant to remedy the failure of the Landlord to comply with his statutory obligations as stated in clause 11.3 above.

11.5. To comply with the obligation under section 9A of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 to keep the Premises fit for human habitation for the duration of the Term.

Insurance

11.6. To insure the building of the Premises under a general household policy with a reputable insurer.

11.7. To provide a copy of the relevant insurance certificate and policy to the Tenant at the start of the tenancy or as soon as possible thereafter.

Other Repairs

11.8. To keep in repair and proper working order all mechanical and electrical items belonging to the Landlord and forming part of the fixtures and fittings, unless the lack of repair is due to the negligence or misuse of the Tenant, his family, or visitors.

11.9. To provide assistance to the Tenants with keeping the Premises free from all pests or vermin as well as remedying any damage caused by pests or vermin.

Safety Regulations

11.10. To ensure that all the furniture and equipment provided by the Landlord complies with the Furniture and Furnishings (Fire) (Safety) Regulations 1988 (as amended in 1993).

11.11. To ensure that all gas appliances comply with the Gas Safety (Installation and Use) Regulations 1998 and that a copy of the safety check record is given to the Tenant at the start of the tenancy.

11.12. To ensure that all electrical installations at the Premises are inspected and tested at regular intervals by a qualified person and that all relevant electrical safety standards (including those under the Electrical Safety Standards in the Private Rented Sector (England) Regulations 2020 where applicable) are met during the tenancy.

Possessions and Refuse

11.13. To remove or pay for the removal of all the possessions of the Landlord (excluding any furnishings, fixtures and fittings that are included with the tenancy) and any rubbish prior to the start of the tenancy.

Interrupting or Ending this Agreement

The following clauses set out the ways in which this agreement may be brought to an end by either party. In addition, these clauses set out the procedures which the Tenant or Landlord shall use when the tenancy is brought to an end.

Early termination by the Landlord

12.1. If and whenever during the Term:

- the Rent or any part of it is in arrears for 14 days after it has become due (whether legally demanded or not), or
- there is a breach of any of the obligations or agreements on the part of the Tenant, or
- the Tenant becomes bankrupt or insolvent or enters into a voluntary arrangement with its creditors; or
- any of the Grounds 2, 7 (in England only), 7A, 7B (in England only), 8, 10-15 and 17 set out in Schedule 2 of the Housing Act 1988 apply the Landlord may re-enter upon the Premises or any part in the name of the whole resuming possession on the furniture and effects and immediately thereon the tenancy shall terminate, but without prejudice to the other rights and remedies of the Landlord. The Landlord's rights under this clause are subject to the restrictions of the Protection From Eviction Act 1977 and the Housing Act 1988 and the Landlord will not whilst the Tenant is residing in the Premises physically retake possession without first obtaining a Court Order.

Notice to end the tenancy at or after the end of the Initial Term

12.2. If either party wishes to end the tenancy on or after the final day of the Initial Term, they may give notice in writing to the other as follows:

- The Landlord must give notice of no less than two months, such notice to expire any time on or after the final day of the Initial Term. A notice served by the Landlord under section 21 of the Housing Act 1988 shall be sufficient notice under this clause.
- The Tenant must give notice of no less than one month, such notice to expire the day before a Rent Payment Day or on the final day of the Initial Term.

12.3. If neither party serves a valid notice to terminate the tenancy at the end of the Initial Term, the parties agree that at the end of the Initial Term the tenancy will continue as a contractual periodic tenancy on a monthly basis.

Uninhabitability

12.4. If at any time the Premises are rendered uninhabitable by an event or events which are not the result of negligence or breach of contract by either party then, the choice being at the Landlord's sole discretion, either:

- the Rent will cease to be payable by the Tenant until the Premises are made habitable and the Landlord will be under no obligation to provide alternative accommodation; or
- the Rent will continue to be payable and the Landlord will be obligated to provide suitable alternative accommodation to the Tenant.

12.5. If following an event described above, in the reasonable opinion of an appropriate expert the Premises cannot be made habitable within one month then either party may give one month's notice to terminate this agreement following which it will end and no further obligations under it will be performable by either party save that either party may pursue the other for breaches of this agreement which pre-date said termination.

Mutual Break Clause

12.6. The Initial Term of this tenancy agreement may be terminated by either party giving the other at least two months' notice in writing, such notice not to expire until at least 6 months after the start of the Term. A notice served by the Landlord under section 21 of the Housing Act 1988 shall be sufficient notice under this clause.

The Tenant is obliged to pay rent up to and including the termination date, so if the tenancy is terminated on a date which is not the last day of a rental period, the rent due for any incomplete rental periods will be apportioned accordingly.

Effect of Notices to terminate the tenancy

12.7. On the expiry of a notice to terminate the tenancy under clause 12.2 or 12.6 the tenancy shall end and no further obligations shall be performed under the tenancy save that either party may pursue the other for any breach of this agreement occurring before the expiry of the notice.

Notices & Miscellaneous

Notices

13.1. The Landlord gives notice to the Tenant that pursuant to Section 48(1) of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1987 that notices (including notices in proceedings) may be served on the Landlord at the address specified at the beginning of this agreement.

13.2. Any notice served upon the Tenant by the Landlord pursuant to this agreement or any statute or regulation must be served in writing and will be deemed sufficiently served if sent by registered post or first class post to or left at the Premises. Notices served by recorded delivery post, or prepaid first class post to the Premises, shall be deemed to have been properly served and received by the Tenant on the second day after posting (or if that day is not a working day on the next working day), or in the case of notices left at the Premises on the next working day after delivery.

13.3. The Landlord and the Tenant agree that notices pursuant to this agreement may be served on the other party by email. The email addresses for notice are:

Landlord: (Notice email visible once signed)

Tenant: (Notice email visible once all tenants have signed)

13.4. Notice served by email shall be deemed sufficiently served if it is sent to the Tenant or the Landlord at the email addresses identified above in this agreement and no notification of failure to deliver that email is received. Notices served by email will be deemed served on the next working day after sending.

13.5. The Landlord gives the Tenant notice under the Housing Act 1988 that possession may be recovered on the following grounds:

- The Landlord notified the Tenant that the Landlord previously occupied the Premises as the Landlord's only or principal home and the Landlord may rely on Ground 1 of Schedule 2 to the Housing Act 1988 to recover possession of the Premises in circumstances where the Landlord requires the Premises as the Landlord's only or principal home.
- The Landlord notified the Tenant that the Premises are subject to a mortgage granted prior to the start of the tenancy for purposes of Ground 2 of Schedule 2 to the Housing Act 1988 and has served notice in accordance with Ground 1 of Schedule 2 to the Housing Act 1988.

Miscellaneous

14.1. If the Premises comprise part only of a building the letting shall include the use (in common with others) of access ways to and from the Premises inside the building.

14.2. Where two or more persons are named on the tenancy agreement, their obligations shall be joint and several. This means, for example, that any one or more of the individuals jointly forming the Tenant can at the Landlord's sole discretion be held responsible for the full Rent and other obligations under the agreement if the other individuals do not fulfil their obligations.

14.3. References to masculine gender include the feminine; to the singular include the plural; and to the 'month' mean calendar month.

14.4. References to a working day mean a week day excluding Christmas Day, Good Friday and any day which, under the Banking and Financial Dealings Act 1971, is a bank holiday in England and Wales.

14.5. The Tenant is responsible for insuring their own belongings, furniture and furnishings in the Premises, and the Landlord will not accept liability for any loss or damage that may occur as a result of use within the Premises.

14.6. The Landlord and the Tenant confirm their agreement with the OpenRent Terms & Conditions and Privacy Policy which they made when creating their account.

14.7. Where the Landlord's own title to the Premises is leasehold and not freehold, the Landlord may themselves be a tenant under a superior lease. The Tenant agrees to perform and observe at all times during the Term the conditions and stipulations contained in the superior lease that were notified to the Tenant prior to the commencement of the tenancy.

14.8. The Landlord is responsible for ensuring the Premises comply with any applicable property licensing regulations for the duration of the tenancy. The Tenant agrees not to use the Premises in any manner which might lead to it becoming licensable under any part of the Housing Act 2004 without the Landlord's express written consent.

14.9. If any term of this agreement is, in whole or in part, held to be illegal or unenforceable to any extent under any enactment or rule of law, that term or part shall to that extent be deemed not to form part of this agreement and the enforceability of the remainder of this agreement shall not be affected.

14.10. The Landlord and the Tenant agree that this agreement shall be exclusively governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of England and Wales.

14.11. The operation of section 62 of the Law of Property Act 1925 is excluded from this agreement. The only rights granted to the Tenant are those expressly set out in this agreement, and the Tenant is not to be entitled to any other rights affecting any adjoining property of the Landlord.

The Guarantor

The Guarantor is the person or persons responsible for discharging the Tenant's obligations if the Tenant defaults whether the Landlord elects to pursue the Tenant or not.

"Joint and Several" means that the Guarantor will be liable with the Tenant to pay all Rent and any debt arising from any breach of the tenancy until all debt is paid in full.

15.1. In consideration of the Landlord agreeing at the request of the Guarantor to accept the Tenant as the Tenant of the Premises the Guarantor hereby covenants with the Landlord that the Tenant will pay the Rent and comply with all the Tenant's obligations in this Agreement (including any variations to increase the Rent whether by agreement between the Landlord and the Tenant or pursuant to a notice given by the Landlord under section 13 of the Housing Act 1988). In any case of default by the Tenant, the Guarantor will pay the Landlord damages in respect of the Landlord's reasonable losses incurred as a result of that default.

15.2. As between the Landlord and the Guarantor the Guarantor is a principal debtor and not merely a surety.

15.3. This Guarantee is irrevocable and shall continue beyond the Guarantor's death or bankruptcy (falling as a liability on the estate) throughout the period that the Premises are occupied by the Tenant and is not limited to the Term of this agreement.

15.4. If the Tenant defaults during the initial Term or any extension, renewal or continuation of this agreement or the Tenant is declared bankrupt and the Tenant's Trustee in Bankruptcy elects to disclaim the agreement then on written demand the Guarantor hereby agrees to pay damages to the Landlord for all losses, claims, liabilities, costs and expenses arising out of or in connection with that default or disclaimer or incurred by the Landlord in connection with the default or disclaimer.

15.5. It is hereby agreed that the Guarantor's liability under this Clause will be joint and several with the Tenant which means that each will be responsible for complying with the Tenant's obligations under this agreement both individually and together. The Landlord may seek to enforce these obligations and claim damages against the Tenant, the Guarantor, or both of them under these clauses. These obligations will not be cleared or affected by any act, neglect, leniency, or giving of time by the Landlord endeavouring to obtain payment or in the enforcement of the Tenant's covenants. If the Tenant surrenders any part of the Premises the Guarantor's liability will continue in respect of the part not surrendered. Any liability accumulated at the date of surrender will continue unaffected.

15.6. If requested by the Landlord, the Guarantor agrees to provide written confirmation of their current address at the start of the tenancy and to notify the Landlord in writing if they move to a new address in the course of the tenancy.
